

One To World

Advancing international understanding
— in the Fulbright tradition —

ANDREA MOO-YOUNG BERMUDEZ

Managing Director of Business Development, The Byebrook Group

Andrea Moo-Young Bermudez is Managing Director of Business Development for the Byebrook Group. She has three decades of financial services experience and in 2018 retired from a 20+ year international banking career with Citigroup where she served the firm in a variety of leadership roles, including Head of International Franchise Management Strategy & Policy. Ms. Bermudez has extensive experience working in Latin America, Eastern Europe, Middle East and Africa. Prior to joining Citigroup, Ms. Moo-Young held various positions as a real estate portfolio manager with various companies in New York, London, Atlanta, and Dallas.

Ms. Moo-Young Bermudez has dual U.S. and Jamaican Citizenships. She received her M.B.A. in finance and marketing from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business and her B.B.A. from Emory University. She currently resides in Austin, Texas with her husband Jorge and their son.