

TERRENCE F. MARTELL, PH.D.

Director, Weissman Center for International Business, Saxe Distinguished Professor of Finance, Baruch College, CUNY

One To World Fulbright Awards Dinner Honoree 2016

Terrence F. Martell, Saxe Distinguished Professor of Finance and Director Emeritus of the Weissman Center for International Business at Baruch College/CUNY, received his BA in Economics from Iona College and his Ph.D. in Finance from the Pennsylvania State University. He is Chair of the Baruch Faculty Senate.

Terrence Martell is chairman of ICE Clear US, a director of ICE Clear Credit, where he chairs its Risk Committee and vice chair of ICE Futures U.S. He is also chairman of the Board of VVC, an exploration and production company that is listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange.

Terrence Martell chairs the Audit Committee as a trustee of the PSC/CUNY Welfare Fund, which manages drug benefits for the employees of the City University of New York, serves as a board member of the Manhattan Chamber of Commerce and is chair of several family trusts. He is a director and treasurer of One To World. He is also a director of Gresham Investment Management LLC, the Tara Emerging Asia Liquid Fund and Analog Gold.

From January 2007 until May 2016, he served as a director of Intercontinental Exchange (ICE) where he was the chair of the Risk Committee and as a member of the Audit Committee. From May 2012 until May 2016, he served as chair of the University Faculty Senate and a trustee of the City University of New York and served on its Fiscal, Audit, and Investment Committees.

A resident of Pelham, New York, he served as President of the Pelham School Board and the United Way of Pelham.